SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 25th day of March, 1869.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Cl. 40.—Royal Warrant for Recruiting Rewards.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 6th April, 1869.)

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we deem it expedient, with a view to the improvement of the system of recruiting for our Army, to amend the regulations under which rewards are now payable to officers and men employed on the recruiting service, and to grant to pensioners so employed the same rewards as shall be issuable to soldier recruiters;

Our will and pleasure is, that Article 444 of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866, and our Royal Warrants of 15th September, 1867, and 24th March, 1868, be cancelled on the 1st April next, and that this our present Warrant shall from the aforesaid 1st April be the sole and standing authority for the payment of recruiting rewards.

LEVY MONEY.

The rewards payable to the officer and recruiting party for each recruit shall be as follows:—

To the Officer.

On each recruit being passed into the service at his Corps.

To the superintending officer in a recruiting district ...	} s. d.
To the adjutant, for each recruit enlisted at the headquarters of a corps at home, or to the officer at a detached station at home empowered to raise head-quarter recruits ...

By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PAYMASTERS ON THE SUBJECT OF RECRUITING.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 20th April, 1869.)

Cl. 41.

1. The system of conducting recruits, re-enlisted and re-engaged men, having been altered, as shown in the Instructions to Inspecting Field Officers of Recruiting Districts, &c., dated Horse Guards, 1st January, 1869, a copy of which is herewith transmitted, the following regulations are promulgated for the guidance and information of paymasters in forwarding or receiving recruits, &c., travelling without escort.

2. The recruit will receive his pay for the day of his departure, less any deduction for ship ration to which he may be liable in respect of any voyage to be performed on that day.

3. In the event of the voyage lasting more than one day, the Paymaster who receives the man will settle with him for arrears (from the date of last payment), less ship rations.

4. The pay for the day of departure as above will be charged, and the ship rations credited in the accounts of the Paymaster by whom such pay is issued; and it is not liable to disallowance in the event of the man's desertion.

5. In the case of a journey by rail, the pay for the day of departure will be issued and charged in like manner, together with the travelling allowances to which the man may be entitled under W. O. Circular 47. These allowances likewise will not be subject to disallowance in the event of the man's desertion.

6. The above charges, viz., pay for the day of departure, railway or steam fare, travelling allowance under W. O. Circular 47, if issued, will appear in the accounts of the Paymaster by whom they are issued, and will be vouched, (1) by the duplicate of the No. 1 Report forwarded to the Paymaster who is to receive the recruit, on which should be fully detailed any allowances issued, or stoppages on account of ship rations deducted from the recruit's pay for the day of departure; and (2) by the railway or passage warrants which are always to be supplied in lieu of money for the recruit's journey.

7. The nature and extent of the issues made should be noted also on the recruit's pass.

8. In any case where the recruit becomes entitled to a hot meal in kind, the charge for the same will be made by the Paymaster who receives the man and sends him into billets, wherever this is done; care being taken that travelling allowances, under W. O. Circular 47, and billet-money are not issued for the same journey.

9. Any Paymaster, who receives a recruit and forwards him, will charge his pay, &c. for the day of departure out of his payment, as well as arrears, if any, under paragraph 3, in the manner above laid down; the charges being vouched by the original No. 1 Report, received from the Paymaster by whom the man was last paid, and the duplicate of the report forwarded to the Paymaster by whom he is next to be paid.

10. Pensioners who conduct recruits to district or subdivision head quarters will not be entitled to the allowance of 1s 6d. a-day, or conducting money of 2s. 6d., after the 31st March; and no such allowance is admissible for staff or regimental non-commissioned officers who may meet recruits at the steamer or railway station and conduct them to their corps in garrison.

11. The words "levy-money" in paragraph 16 of the Horse Guards Instructions, dated 1st January, 1869, do not apply to the fee of the private medical practitioner, which will be, as heretofore, governed by Clause 446, Royal Warrant of February, 1866.

12. Warrants will be issued instead of necessary money, upon which the usual ticket will be obtained and given to the man. When the journey is by steamer, and a contract exists, the warrant is to be "with rations."

13. When the distances from out-stations are small, the railway fare will be paid by the conductor.

Cl. 42.—Charge Pay—Medical Officers.

The certificate called for from general and other officers commanding by Clause 25, Army Circular 1868, is dispensed with as regards Gibraltar, Malta, Canada and the Cape of Good Hope.

Cl. 43.—Pecuniary Embarrassment of Accountants.

Any officer acting as an accountant under the War Office, who shall be arrested for debt, or shall be involved in pecuniary difficulties, shall be thereby disqualified from retaining charge of public money or stores, and shall, pending due investigation, be suspended from duty and salary.

Cl. 44.—Return of Barrack and Hospital Expenditure.

1. The monthly return of barrack expenditure (W. O. Form 1384) ordered by Clause 9, Army Circulars 1867, will be discontinued. The clause in question is hereby cancelled.

2. The monthly return of hospital expenditure (W. O. Form 1058) will also be discontinued.

Cl. 45.—Damage to Public Buildings.

The public are not liable to the expense of necessary repairs to a public building, owing to damage caused by circumstances which might have been prevented by proper care and attention on the part of the troops, or on the part of any officer, or of his servant, batman or other person in charge on his behalf. In such cases an officer will be held responsible for the acts of his servant, as well as for his own.

Cl. 46.—Regulations for Paymasters of the Control Department in Ireland.

These regulations, issued specially on 25th March to officers immediately concerned, are printed as an appendix to the present clause.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONDUCTING BARRACK DUTIES UNDER THE CONTROL SYSTEM.Cl. 47.

The Secretary of State for War, with the concurrence of his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, has approved of the following instructions for conducting barrack duties under the control system.

Existing barrack regulations will remain in force, except as herein specially amended.

Anything not provided for in these instructions will be governed by existing regulations, modified as far as may be necessary to bring them into harmony with the control system.

In the following instructions, "Controller" will be held to signify the officer the head of the Department of Control, or the officer acting for him; and "Officer of the Control Department," a Commissary or subordinate of the Sub-department of Supply.

Buildings Appropriated to Controllers.

1. All official residences, offices, stores and quarters now allotted to the Supply and Transport Services (commissariat, military store, barrack and purveyors) will be at the disposal of the Control Department to be applied by the Controller for the service of that department (to the extent allowed by regulations as regards quarters), and when no longer required will be surrendered for re-appropriation as provided for in Clause 47.

All buildings appropriated to the Control Department will be governed by the same regulations as barracks.

Barrack and Store Duties.

2. Previous to the occupation of a barrack by troops, the time when the troops will arrive, and the strength for which accommodation is required, will be notified by the general or other officer commanding to the Controller and to the Commanding Royal Engineer.

3. The Commanding Royal Engineer will detail an officer of the Royal Engineer Department to hand over the premises to the officer commanding the incoming troops, or to the officer deputed by him to receive over charge.

4. The Controller will also detail an officer to attend the arrival of the troops, to give over, on inventory, the regulated barrack furniture, utensils and bedding.

5. When a barrack is partly occupied, the unoccupied, as well as the occupied, portions of the buildings, together with such portion of the heavy barrack furniture, consisting of bedsteads, coal boxes, tables, forms, as may be necessarily left in the barracks, will be placed in charge of the troops for security, but not for re-distribution or re-appropriation, in accordance with Articles 927 and 940 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army.

6. When a barrack is partly occupied, and additional troops are to be quartered therein, notice will be given to the officer commanding the troops occupying the barrack, to the Controller and to the Commanding Royal Engineer, when the necessary barrack accommodation and stores will be handed over to the incoming troops, as provided for in Clauses 4 and 5. If the troops belong to the same regiment or corps as that already occupying the barrack, the entire charge will still remain with the senior regimental officer in the barrack; but should they be of a different corps, each corps will be responsible for the premises and stores in its possession.

7. The officer commanding the troops occupying the barracks, or an officer (not under the rank of Captain) deputed by him, will inspect the whole of the premises and stores in charge of the troops monthly, and will note any repairs that may appear to him to be required, whether rendered requisite by fair wear or damage by the troops. This inspection will, however, be unnecessary in any month in which the quarterly inspection is made.

8. Repairs to buildings or stores (chargeable to the troops) may be effected by them at their own expense, without the intervention of the Commanding Royal Engineer or the Controller. A monthly return of the repairs so made will, however, be made by the officer commanding the troops in occupation to the Commanding Royal Engineer in the case of repair to buildings, and to the Controller in the case of stores, and such repairs will be subject to the approval of those officers respectively on their quarterly or other inspection.

9. The officer commanding the troops occupying the barrack will, immediately after the monthly inspection, send requisitions in writing to the Commanding Royal Engineer, for such repairs to the buildings as may have been found necessary at the inspection, unless made as provided for in Clause 8.

10. Requisitions will be similarly sent in to the Controller for any stores which it may have been found necessary to repair or replace, unless made as provided for in Clause 8.

11. No intermediate requisition for repairs to buildings, or for repairs to or replacement of stores, will be allowed, except for most urgent services; but should one be necessary, care must be taken that it is sent in upon the proper form for buildings, or for stores, and for fair wear, or for damage, as the case may require.

12. The repairs to buildings, and the repairs to or replacements of stores, required from fair wear, will be shown on separate requisitions from those required from damage by the troops.

13. The Commanding Royal Engineer will be responsible that damages by the troops to buildings are not made good at the public expense without special authority, and he will notify to the officer commanding, and certify on the account for the repairs (for the guidance of the chief auditor) the amount to be credited in the regimental accounts.

14. The whole of the premises will be inspected quarterly by an officer of the Royal Engineer Department, accompanied as laid down by Article 948 of the Queen's Orders and Regulations for the Army. All necessary repairs and replacements to buildings, as noted by him, will be made good. The cost of damages will be recovered as stated in paragraph 22.

15. The stores will be similarly inspected by an officer of the Control Department. The cost of damages to be recovered, as provided for in paragraph 22.

16. The Commanding Royal Engineer will have executed, by means of the troops, when practicable, such of the services included in the requisitions as may be found necessary upon inspection by the Royal Engineer Department.

17. Should it appear to the Commanding Royal Engineer at the inspection, that any repairs have been included in the fair wear requisitions, which should be made good as damages by the troops, he will bring the matter under the notice of the officer commanding the corps concerned, and adjust the requisition with him if possible. When it cannot be so adjusted, the Commanding Royal Engineer will immediately refer the case to the general officer commanding, whose decision will be final. In the event of the general officer commanding disallowing an assessment for repairs to a building made against the troops by the Commanding Royal Engineer, he will report his decision for the information of the Secretary of State for War.

18. The troops will, by order entered in the regimental or corps Order Book, bring the stores which they require to be repaired or replaced to the stores of the Control Department, and will receive there and take away what is necessary; whenever the service requires that they should do so.

19. The Controller will arrange for the repair of stores; which will be done by means of the troops, whenever practicable.

20. The officers of the supply branch will be responsible to the Controller that stores are not issued in excess of regulation; and that any stores damaged by the troops, or not forthcoming at inspections, are replaced at the cost of the troops, in accordance with the Queen's Orders and Regulations for the Army.

21. In case of any difference of opinion between the Control Department and the troops as to whether the necessity for repairs to or replacement of stores, has arisen from damage done by the troops, or from fair wear and tear, the controller will, if he cannot himself settle the case with the troops, immediately refer it to the general officer commanding, whose decision will be acted upon. But in the event of the general officer commanding disallowing an assessment made against the troops by the Controller, the correspondence will be immediately submitted by the latter, through the general officer commanding, for the information of the Secretary of State for War.

22. The Commanding Royal Engineer will notify to the regimental Paymaster, through the officer commanding, the amount due by the regiment for repairs to buildings, and the Controller will notify the amount due for repair or replacement of stores, and the Paymaster will credit the amounts to the public in his accounts.

23. Damages to buildings or to stores in possession of staff and departmental officers and others (not regimental) shall be recovered by the staff Paymaster, on returns to be furnished by the Commanding Royal Engineer and the Controller respectively, one copy being forwarded to the chief auditor.

24. The necessary notice will be given to the Controller and to Commanding Royal Engineer when a barrack is to be vacated, and of the probable duration of its vacancy.

25. When a barrack is to be vacated, the buildings will be inspected by an officer of the Royal Engineer Department, who will assess the damages, if any, chargeable against the troops, the cost of which will be recovered as provided for in Clause 22.

26. The stores will be similarly inspected by an officer of the Control Department, who will assess the damages, if any, due by the troops, which will be credited as provided for in Clause 22.

27. An officer on the part of the troops will also attend at each inspection referred to in Clauses 25, 26, and will give notice of appeal at the time against any charge for loss or damage which he may not think just to the troops.

28. In the event of such an appeal, the course laid down by paragraphs 17 and 21 will be followed.

29. Unoccupied barracks and quarters (including all furniture necessarily left in the building, as specified in Clause 5) will, unless the convenience and economy of the service render it expedient for them to be taken in charge by the Control Department, be in charge of the Commanding Royal Engineer.

30. When a barrack is to be re-occupied the Controller will detail an officer to receive over any stores left in the barracks (as referred to in preceding clause) in order to transfer them to the incoming troops, as provided in Clause 4.

31. Barrack stores not in use of the troops will in future, subject to the provision contained in paragraph 29, be concentrated in storehouses in such places as may be decided upon; and will be under the charge of the Control Department. Supplies to small stations at which no storehouses exist will be made from the most accessible and convenient station at which there is a depot of stores.

Charge and Supply of Fuel and Light.

32. The charge and supply of fuel and light will devolve on the Control Department, and will be accounted for in the same manner as other supplies.

33. The regulated issues of fuel and light will be made to troops in barracks by the commissary or other person in charge, on requisitions, signed, as at present, by the officer commanding the troops requiring the issue.

34. In case of over-issues arising from excessive requisitions made by the officer commanding the troops in barracks and others, the excess of cost will not be allowed to fall on the public.

35. The troops will, if necessary, attend at the stores of the Control Department to obtain the weekly supply of candles or oil.

36. When gas is supplied, the supervision of its use will rest with the officer commanding the troops in barracks, and with the Control Department.

37. The meters will be examined and noted by officers of the Control Department monthly at large stations, and quarterly at minor stations, and when troops enter or leave a barrack any excessive consumption of gas will be brought to the attention of the general officer commanding, with a recommendation upon the case.

38. The general officer commanding will call on the officer commanding for any explanation which he may think fit regarding the excess, and will refer this explanation to the Controller for his opinion whether the cost of the excess should fall on the public.

39. In any case in which the Controller, after due explanation, is of opinion that the public should not be charged with the cost of such excess, and the general officer commanding dissents from such opinion, the decision of the general officer commanding will be acted upon. But the correspondence will immediately be submitted by the Controller, through the general officer commanding, for the information of the Secretary of State for War.

40. Annual returns, showing the consumption and cost of gas in each barrack as compared with the occupation, will be transmitted by the Controller for the information of the Controller in Chief.

Paillassé Straw.

41. The officers of the Control Department will arrange for the due supply of paillassé straw.

Lodging List.

42. The Commanding Royal Engineer will transmit in triplicate to the general officer commanding the monthly returns (at present furnished by Barrackmasters), showing the construction and occupation of barracks. When they have been approved by him, the general officer commanding will forward one copy to the Controller, in order that he may check and certify the claims for lodging allowance, one to the Secretary of State for War, and one to the Quartermaster General of the Army for the information of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief.

43. All claims for lodging allowance will be sent in duplicate to the Controller by officers commanding corps, and others, at the regulated periods; when certified by the Controller they will be paid by the Control Paymaster or the Regimental Paymaster in the case of regimental accounts.

44. The Controller will bring to the notice of the general officer commanding any unnecessary issue of lodging allowance, with his recommendation as to the steps to be taken. The general officer commanding will cause the circumstances to be at once inquired into, and any allowance that has been improperly issued to be refunded.

45. Should the general officer commanding dissent from the recommendation of the Controller, the decision of the general officer will be acted upon; but the correspondence will be submitted by the Controller, through the general officer commanding, for the information of the Secretary of State for War.

46 The Commanding Royal Engineer will be held responsible for bringing under the attention of the general officer commanding, any irregular occupation of, or alteration in, barrack buildings which may come to his knowledge; he will also add a recommendation of the steps to be taken. The general officer commanding will at once take the necessary steps to cause the irregularity to cease. In the event of the general officer commanding differing from the recommendation submitted to him, the correspondence will immediately be submitted by the general officer commanding for the decision of the Secretary of State for War.

47. All proposed re-appropriations or redistributions of barracks or other buildings (except as provided for in Clause 1) will be referred to a board consisting of a staff officer, an officer of the Royal Engineers and an officer of the Control Department. A detailed estimate of the expense involved, prepared by the Commanding Royal Engineer, will be laid before the board and its proceedings will be forwarded by the Controller, through the general officer commanding, with any observations or recommendations the general officer commanding may wish to submit, for the consideration and decision of the Secretary of State.

48 Any officer commanding troops in barracks may bring under the notice of the general officer commanding any re-appropriation which, in his opinion, would lead to economy and to the advantage of the service; but no re-appropriation or redistribution must be carried out, except as provided for in preceding clause.

Hire and Letting of Buildings, or other Premises.

49. The principles laid down for the accommodation of troops in, and for the care of unoccupied barracks, will also apply in the cases of hired buildings, official residences, and offices.

50. No building or land shall be hired for any purpose without the authority of the Secretary of State for War, except at foreign stations, when circumstances do not admit of the delay of a reference to England, and in cases of extraordinary emergency at home.

51. When buildings or other premises are required to be hired for the use of the troops, the general officer commanding will call upon the Controller, to report the arrangements he would propose; with a clear statement of the necessity for the hiring, the expense involved for rent, and of the time for which it must be continued. This report will be referred by the general officer commanding to the Commanding Royal Engineer, to state on it whether the building proposed to be hired is suitable for the service; whether the service could not be met more economically by the erection of temporary buildings, or by resuming possession of any land or building let by the War Department, or by any other means.

52. The Commanding Royal Engineer will in every instance furnish an estimate of the expense of any alterations or fittings required.

53. The report, with the remarks or orders of the general officer commanding, will then be returned to the Controller, who will transmit it to the Controller in Chief for the information or decision of the Secretary of State for War. Should the Secretary of State approve the hiring (or the general officer commanding in cases where reference cannot first be made to the Secretary of State for War, see Clause 50), the Controller will effect the same, resorting, if possible, to competition.

54. War Department lands and buildings not required for the public service will be let under existing regulations.

Rents, Rates, and Taxes.

55. Claims for rents, rates, and taxes for hired lands and buildings will be prepared and certified by an officer of the Control Department. Rates and taxes for lands and buildings, the property of the War Department, will be prepared and certified by the Commanding Royal Engineer as their custodian, and passed to the Control Paymaster for settlement.

Water Supply.

56. The construction and maintenance of wells, pumps, and other works, for the supply of water, will be provided for by, and be in charge of, the Commanding Royal Engineer.

57. Water supplied by transport or by contract will be provided for, and be under the direction of, the Control Department.

58. Annual returns, showing the consumption and cost of water in each barrack as compared with the occupation, will be transmitted by the Controller, for the information of the Controller in Chief.

Custody of Contracts, Leases, &c.

59. All contracts will be in charge of the Control Department, except those for letting lands and buildings, which will be in the custody of the Commanding Royal Engineer, as provided for in Circular 360.

Charge of Lands.

60. Lands belonging to, or hired by, the War Department, will be in charge of the Commanding Royal Engineer.

Emptying Cesspits and Ashpits, sweeping Chimneys, supply of Lime and other Disinfectants.

61. The necessary provision for these services will be made by Commanding Royal Engineer.

Whitewashing Barracks.

62. The whitewashing of barracks will be provided for, and will be performed at the authorized periods, by the Royal Engineer Department, or between such periods by the troops, as heretofore. The lime, utensils, and implements, necessary for the execution of the service by the troops, will be provided by the Royal Engineer Department.

Cleaning Drains.

63. Drains will be attended to by the Royal Engineer Department when skilled labour is required; otherwise by the troops.

Weeding and Cleaning Roads and Parades.

64. Roads and Parades will be attended to by the troops in barracks, and by the Royal Engineer Department.

Repairs of Floors of Riding Schools.

65. The existing regulations respecting the repair of floors of riding houses by riding masters will remain in force.

When the floor of a riding house is worn out by long and fair use, it will be made good by the Royal Engineer Department at the public expense.

The floors of riding houses in charge of the Royal Artillery will be kept in repair by the Royal Engineer Department on the usual requisition.

When riding houses are jointly used by Cavalry and Artillery, special application is to be made to the Under Secretary of State for War for their periodical repair.

The materials for the repair of floors of riding houses, provided by riding masters, will be approved both as to quality and quantity by the Commanding Royal Engineer before they are laid down. The floor will also be inspected by an officer of the Royal Engineer Department after the sawdust and tan have been laid down, with a view to ascertain whether the entire service has been satisfactorily performed.

A half-yearly report of these repairs will be made by the Commanding Royal Engineer to the Under Secretary of State for War.

Fixed Clocks.

66. The winding, regulating and repairing of turret or other fixed clocks will be provided for by Commanding Royal Engineer.

Fire Engines.

67. Fire engines will be provided by the Controller. When issued they will be in temporary charge of the corps or departments to which they are allotted, subject to inspection by the Control Department, and to the regulations governing the custody of stores generally.

Contracts and Payments.

68. All contracts connected with the foregoing services will be made by the Controller, and all payments by the Control Paymaster on vouchers properly certified as to service.

Garrisons and Regimental Hospitals.

69. The foregoing regulations will apply, as far as may be practicable, to regimental and garrison hospitals.

Opinions and Recommendations.

70. All opinions and recommendations will be in writing; and all decisions of the General Officer Commanding will be signed by himself.

STORES.

CL. 48.—Stock-Taking.

Officers appointed to take stock or remains of stores are reminded with reference to Clause 30, Army Circulars 1867, that they will be held strictly responsible that all the articles specified in the "collected account" have been actually produced to them, or, in the case of barrack stores, are included in the regimental inventories.

CL. 49.—Quality Certificates.

1. The Secretary of State for War has decided that the assembling of boards to grant quality certificates for stores purchased locally for the public service shall be dispensed with.

2. In lieu thereof the officer receiving such stores will certify, and be responsible for, the quality as well as the quantity of the stores received. This rule does not apply to stores received under contract, the inspection or survey of which is provided for in the conditions of contract.

3. Such previous regulations and forms as are affected by the above decision are hereby cancelled, whether they relate to the provision, store, barrack, or hospital branch of the Control Department.

CL. 50.—Assessment of Charges for Barrack Stores lost or destroyed.

1. With reference to the assessment made at the regulated periodical inspections on account of barrack stores lost or destroyed by the troops, the Secretary of State for War has decided that the charges to be made against the troops shall be assessed at the rates published in the Army Circulars, except where the cost by local purchase has been less than such rates, in which case the actual cost only is to be charged.

2. Whenever a less sum than the published rates is assessed against the troops, a certificate will be given by the inspecting officer, that the articles have been replaced at the prices charged.

CL. 51.—Metford's Explosive Bullets.

1. Metford's explosive bullets having been condemned as obsolete, controllers and officers in charge of military stores will take the following measures for their disposal.

2. About one-tenth inch of the apex of the bullet will be cut off with a small knife, thus removing that part of the bullet which is partially spun over the composition, and preventing explosion in the after operation.

3. The bullets, a few at a time, will then be thrown into a fire (portable or otherwise), the melted lead being allowed to run into ingot moulds, as it falls through the bars of the furnace.

4. The quantity of lead so produced will be brought on charge by voucher of conversion, and included in the next report of the half-yearly Board of Survey, with a recommendation as to the advisability of transferring it to the Royal Arsenal, or of selling it at the station.

5. The price which can be realized at the station will be stated on the report.

CL. 52.—Jute Bags.

1. As jute bags are liable to spontaneous combustion if stored when wet, or piled in damp places, controllers and officers in charge of Military Stores will, on the receipt of studded projectiles, cause the jute bags to be removed and carefully examined.

2. Any of the bags found to be wet or damp will be destroyed, and a certificate voucher accounting for their disposal annexed to the store ledger.

3. Care will be taken in all cases to pile jute bags in a dry store.

CL. 53.—Grey Blankets.

Controllers and officers in charge of Military Stores are informed that where an insufficiency of white barrack blankets exists the grey field blankets may be issued in lieu for use in barracks.

CL. 54.—Horse Blankets.

Where stables are available, horse blankets will in future be supplied for sick horses only.

ARMY CIRCULARS—continued.Cl. 55.—Latrine Paper.

The monthly return of the issues of latrine paper (W. O. F. 1355), ordered by W. O. Circular 788, may be discontinued.

AMMUNITION.Cl. 56.—Errata in and Addenda to Regulations for the Supply of Ammunition for Practice and Exercise. (Issued with Army Circulars, Feb. 1869.)

39A. All ammunition allowed to be purchased will be paid for prior to issue.

Batteries of embodied Militia Artillery and batteries of the Channel Islands Militia receive the same supplies as the Royal Artillery.

Cl. 57.—Conveyance.

1. No ammunition or gunpowder will be sent to any station at home, until the officer who has to receive it has been communicated with by the officer who has to make the supply, and the consignee has replied that he is prepared to receive it.

2. At the time the issue is made a proper invoice will be sent to the consignee.

3. When small-arm ammunition or gunpowder has to be removed by the troops, in their own wagons, or in the wagons belonging to the War Department, a requisition will be made on the general or other officer commanding the district or garrison, by the officer in charge of the depôt, stating the number of wagons required, and the day on which the ammunition or powder will be ready for removal. It should be left to the officer commanding the troops to fix the day and hour on which the ammunition or gunpowder shall be removed.

4. At the time and place appointed, a military store officer or a serjeant conductor will be in attendance to hand the packages over to the officer commanding the party. Should wadmittilts be required for the security of the ammunition they will be lent to the military party, and the military store officer will take care they are duly returned when the service has been completed. In order, however, that there may be no divided responsibility, it is to be clearly understood that the officer in command will be responsible for the due delivery of the packages, as well as for the wagons being in all respects suitable, properly stowed, and not overlaiden.

5. When small quantities of ammunition or gunpowder have to be forwarded, they will be placed in iron safety cases, specially prepared for the service, and no further protection is necessary; but when large quantities have to be forwarded, otherwise than by military conveyance, the military store officer making the issue will take care that the contractor by whom the packages are forwarded provides proper conveyance for the same; that the carts or wagons are not overlaiden; and that they are properly secured both from danger and damp, and for this object wadmittilts and hides may be lent to the contractor on the same terms as laid down in § 4.

6. As all ammunition and gunpowder sent by railway is placed in properly constructed powder vans (except when secured in iron safety cases, as alluded to in § 5), no further precautions against danger are necessary, the railway authorities and contract carrier being responsible; but the contract carriers will have to see that the packages are handed over to the railway officials in proper order and condition. They will have also to make all arrangements with each railway company for the due forwarding of the ammunition or gunpowder without delay after receipt at the station, and will therefore have to give due notice to such company of the day and hour on which it is to be forwarded. The contract carriers will further be responsible that, when the ammunition reaches the railway station, proper conveyances are at hand to convey it to its final destination.

7. Volunteers and other corps may draw their own ammunition and convey it to their own magazines, the officer in charge of the dépôt taking care that the conveyances are in all respects suitable, and are not overlaiden. Wadmittilts may also be lent on the terms laid down in § 4.

8. In the absence of special orders from the War Office, escorts will not be required to accompany ammunition or gunpowder, unless the general or other officer commanding the district or garrison considers it necessary, and in the event of such being the case, he will duly inform the military store officer, who will, in such a case, invariably apply to such officer for the proper escort, stating in his application the quantities of ammunition or gunpowder to be forwarded, by what conveyance to be sent, as also the day and hour fixed for its departure. It will be for the officer commanding the troops to determine the strength and description of the escort required.

LAND AND INLAND WATER TRANSPORT.CL. 58.

1. At stations where the Control system is established, all requisitions returns and correspondence relating to the above services will be sent direct to the Controller, who will obtain the approval of the general officer commanding before complying with requisitions in excess of the authorized transport as sanctioned by regulation.

2. The above does not include carriage of troops by railway at home, under routes issued by the Quarter Master General.

EDWARD LUGARD.

G.O. 44.—Musketry.

(Specially issued 5th April, 1869.)

The Secretary of State for War having been pleased, on the recommendation of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, to approve of the grant of a money prize with a medal, to the best shot of the Army in each year—and also of the regimental rewards for good shooting being in future issued in lump sums, instead of by daily payments—and his Royal Highness being of opinion that, in view of the advantage thus held out to the troops, the standards of proficiency required in order to qualify for prizes ought to be raised, and that this can be attained with benefit to the public service, and without exacting from the soldiers more than they are quite capable of performing, it has been decided—

First.—To increase the number of points for passing from the 3rd to the 2nd class from 30 to 36.

Secondly.—To increase the number of points to be obtained in the 1st class, in order to become a "marksman," from 20 to 22 for the Enfield rifle, and from 30 to 33 points with the Whitworth.

Thirdly.—To reduce the number of answers to be given in each judging distance practice from six to four,—requiring eight instead of twelve answers in each period,—but retaining the same number of points as at present, for passing from the third into the second class, and requiring ten points to be made in order to pass from the second into the first class.

Fourthly.—To increase the number of points required to render a soldier eligible for reward as "Best Shot of the Battalion," and "Best Shot of the Company," from 20 to 22 with the Enfield, and from 30 to 33 with the Whitworth rifle.

These new rules are to be adopted for the present year's course.

The order defining the amount and regulating the issue of the money prizes in lump sums will be promulgated by the War Office.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 45.—Establishments. (Cavalry at Home.)

(Specially issued 18th April, 1869.)

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief having decided that squadron organization shall be established in cavalry regiments, in barracks as well as in the field, directs that officers commanding will take immediate steps to carry out the following instructions:—

For the future the squadron will be considered the unit, and the word "troop" will be discontinued.

There will be four squadrons in each regiment.

To each squadron two captains, two lieutenants and one cornet will be allotted.

The four senior captains will command the squadrons, receive the contingent allowance, and be responsible to the commanding officer for the horses, arms, accoutrements, stores, &c. of the whole squadron.

The junior captains will serve under the orders of the senior.

To each squadron a serjeant major and a quartermaster serjeant will be appointed.

These non-commissioned officers are to be selected from the troop serjeant majors.

The serjeant major's duties will relate, under the direction of the captain, to all details connected with the drill, discipline and management of the squadron.

The quartermaster serjeant will, under the direction of the captain, keep the accounts of the squadron, and take charge of spare arms, accoutrements, stores, &c.

The following non-commissioned officers, &c., will also be attached to each squadron, viz.:—

6 Serjeants; 6 Corporals; 1 Farrier; 2 Trumpeters; 3 Shoeing Smiths; 1 Saddler.

G.O. 46.—Fines for Drunkenness.

(Specially issued 20th April, 1869.)

1. By the 78th Article of War of 1869 power is given to commanding officers to deal with the crime of drunkenness in the Army by the infliction of summary fines.

2. These fines are to be awarded in accordance with the scale now published (Appendix A.), which is to be strictly and rigidly adhered to.

3. It will be seen that the fines are progressive in amount on the repetition of acts of drunkenness, but, on the other hand, are subject to reduction in proportion to the length of time elapsing between the offences; thereby holding out strong inducements to the soldier to abstain.

4. The fines are to be enforced by an actual daily stoppage, and not by a mere debit in the monthly account.

5. When the fine amounts to ten shillings, or a second fine has been incurred before a former one is paid, the daily stoppage will be 4d., but it is never to be less than 3d.

6. The fines for a second offence, while the soldier is already undergoing stoppage for a former act of drunkenness, will commence when the first is paid.

7. The soldier, in every case of fine, has the right of appeal to a court martial.

8. Confinement to barracks at the discretion of the commanding officer, subject to the regulated limitations, may be combined with fine for drunkenness, should the aggravated nature of the case seem to demand such a course.

9. It shall be considered a rule that in all cases after the commission of an act of drunkenness, a soldier shall, where practicable, be kept in barracks or camp for twenty-four hours without punishment drill.

10. Imprisonment in the garrison cells shall not in any case be combined with fine for simple acts of drunkenness, though it may be added for serious offences in connection with drunkenness.

11. All awards of fine are to be entered in the regimental defaulters' book, and published in regimental orders.

12. Absence from tattoo to reveillé the following morning, is to be considered as equivalent to an act of drunkenness in calculating the amount of fine imposed by the scale (Appendix A.).

13. The scale of fines is to be placed in a conspicuous position in every barrack room.

14. The amount accruing from the fines will be formed into a general fund, to be applied under the direction of the Secretary of State for War to objects tending to the benefit of the soldiers of the Army generally.

15 The number of men who have been fined for drunkenness during the month—the number of fines—and the total amount of fines, are to be shown at the foot of the return of courts martial.

16. AH defaulters are to be permitted to enter the canteen during certain fixed hours in the day, say from 6 to 8 p.m.

G.O. 47.—Serjeants' Messes.

(Specially issued 23rd April, 1869.)

I. With reference to paragraph 8 of G.O. 110 of 1868, it has been decided that military bandmasters are not to be required to act as treasurers of serjeants' messes. In the event of any bandmaster being now so employed, he is to be relieved at the expiration of the quarter during which this G.O. may be received.

II. 1st corporals of Royal Engineers are to be members of serjeants' messes.

G.O. 48.—Arms, Accoutrements, &c., &c.

(Specially issued 23rd April, 1869.)

Referring to the reductions in the establishments of the various branches of the service, officers commanding are requested to give early directions for the delivery into store of all arms, ammunition, accoutrements, saddlery, carriages, camp equipment and stores, that have become surplus, in the manner directed in paragraphs 16, 17 and 18 of the Royal Warrant, 23rd January, 1865, Circular No. 895.

G.O. 49.—Dress.

At balls or levées paymasters of infantry are authorized to wear gold lace sword belts similar to those worn by the other officers of the regiment.

G.O. 50.—Canteens. (Quarter Master General)

Referring to paragraph 1024 of the Queen's Regulations, in which it is directed that the canteen serjeant is to be changed once in six months, commanding officers are informed that the services of a canteen serjeant may, if necessary, be retained for a second period of six months, on special application being made to the quartermaster general in due time before the expiration of the first period, and on the clear understanding that another non-commissioned officer will be prepared to replace such canteen serjeant at the end of twelve months.

G.O. 51.—Clothing.

The accompanying new form of size roll for clothing (Appendix B.) having been prepared, the following instructions are to be attended to in future:—

Every soldier is to be measured once every year, between 1st and 31st March, and the measurement of the head, body and feet then taken are to be entered in his pocket ledger (according to the form shown in Appendix C.), not later than 1st April in each year, so that each man may at all times carry his correct measurements with him wherever he goes.

The periodical size rolls required to be transmitted to the War Office can then be filled up without difficulty, whether the man is at head quarters, on detachment, or elsewhere.

For taking the head measurements, a head dress which fits the man should be measured, not the man's head, and that measurement should be recorded.

The tunic (i.e., body) measurements must be taken in the usual mode by measuring tapes, and always over a flannel shirt (or even a waistcoat if worn), in order to allow of its fitting easily over any under garments which the soldier may be required to wear by the regulations of the service, or which he may be permitted to wear for his own comfort.

The sizes of all boots being marked on the waist of the insoles, there will be no difficulty in entering the foot measurement of each soldier in his pocket ledger, after he has been properly fitted for the April issue.

G.O. 52.—Armaments.

Paragraph 235 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army is to be amended as follows, viz.:—

235. When it is necessary to make proposals respecting new armaments, or changes in existing armaments, the officer commanding the artillery and the commanding engineer will prepare a joint report which, with illustrative plans will be forwarded through the general officer commanding to the Adjutant General for submission to the Commander in Chief and Secretary of State for War. Such report is to be headed with a statement of the number and nature of the guns in the work under consideration, as also an outline of the work itself, if it be not too large and complex in form.

G.O. 53.—Arms.

It having been found that the rammers of Snider breech-loading rifles are apt to injure the barrels in cleaning, the square heads are to be filed round by armourer serjeants of regiments without expense to the public.

G.O. 54.—Carriages.

In all reports of committees or boards on carriages or wheels, the numbers or other distinguishing marks which they bear should be invariably inserted, in order that the date of their construction may be readily ascertained, as ordered in sect. 1545, List of Changes, No. 16, New Series, 30th January, 1868.

G.O. 55.—Clothing.

In the Infantry, serjeant majors and quartermaster serjeants will henceforward wear chevrons below the elbow; all other non-commissioned officers are to wear them above the elbow.

G.O. 56.—Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires that the revised platoon exercise be circulated for general information.

Part V. Gen. Principles X. will be corrected as follows:—

How arms are carried.—Both skirmishers and supports will stand with ordered arms, and move at "the trail," except when in close column in sections, or in close files, in which case they will, as usual, advance (or shoulder); reserves will move with sloped (or trailed) arms.

G.O. 57.—Railways—Misconduct of Soldiers proceeding by.

Instances having occurred in which soldiers on escort duty; or proceeding to or from their homes on furlough, or on discharge; or to join their depôts; have been guilty of drunkenness, and other acts of misconduct in railway carriages, to the annoyance and discomfort of the public; commanding officers will take care that all soldiers, before leaving the station are made aware that, in the event of any such misconduct as that above referred to, they are liable to be removed from the railway stations and carriages by the police, and to be placed in confinement and dealt with by the civil power for breach of the companies' bye-laws.

G.O. 58.—Recruiting.

The dates of enlistment and of final approval of Militiamen enlisted and passed for the Army are to be notified, without delay, by commanding officers of regiments, corps or depôts, to the adjutant of the Militia regiment to which they belonged.

G.O. 59.—Transfers.

It is hereby directed that soldiers, ordered to be transferred from one corps to another on the last day of a month, be struck off the strength of the old regiment, and taken on that of the new, in the return of the following day.

By Command.

Alphabetical List

OF

GENERAL AND FIELD OFFICERS

RETIRED FROM THE ARMY,

With the Regiments from which they Retired.

All General and Field Officers whose names are allowed to be retained in the Army List, whether they may have sold out since or previously to the issuing of Her Majesty's Royal Warrant of the 6th October, 1854, shall send a Notification to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War of their being alive on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year.

If such Notification due on the 1st January be not received at the War Office by the 1st April, and that due on the 1st July by the 1st October, it will be concluded that the Officer is deceased, and his name will be removed from the Army List.

MEMORANDUM for the information of Officers who are Candidates for the appointment of Staff Officer of Pensioners.

AN Officer under or above the rank of Captain, or whose appointment would involve immediate Brevet Rank, or who, having received the difference, is not prepared to repay it, or who has not completed FIFTEEN years' service on Full Pay as a Commissioned Officer, is ineligible for the appointment.

A Candidate should state the following particulars in his application :—

- 1st. His age.
- 2nd. Whether on Full or Half Pay; and whether serving abroad or at home.
- 3rd. The date of his Commission as Captain.
- 4th. Whether he received the difference when placed on Half Pay; and whether he retired at his own request, from ill health, or from wounds.
- 5th. Whether he has served as Adjutant, or Paymaster, or on the Staff in any capacity likely to qualify him for the duties of Staff Officer of Pensioners.
- 6th. Whether he has certificates of ability and fitness from Officers under whom he served.

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

Clause 59.—Royal Warrant.—Pay of District Adjutants.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas we deem it expedient, in view of changes in the mode of recruiting for our Army, in consequence of which the adjutants of certain recruiting districts will in future be relieved from the duty of acting as recruiting officers, that a special rate of pay shall be fixed for those district adjutants on whom the substantive rank of captain shall be conferred ;

Our will and pleasure is that such officers shall receive, in lieu of the rates fixed by Article 187 of our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, pay at the daily rate of 3s. 6d. in addition to the pay of a captain of infantry (11s. 7d. a-day).

Given at our Court at Windsor, this 15th day of April, 1869, in the thirty-second year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 60.—Royal Warrant.—Pensions to Soldiers prematurely Discharged.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, 8th May, 1869.)

VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been represented to us that it is expedient that soldiers, who, on account of their second period of limited engagement being about to expire, or on account of medical disability, are not permitted to proceed to or with their regiments on foreign service, be granted their discharge from our Army ; and whereas by our Royal Warrant of 28th July, 1864, no rate of permanent pension is assigned to soldiers discharged at their own request, or for the public service, except such soldiers shall have served the full term of twenty-one years in the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, or Infantry, or twenty-four years in the Cavalry;

Our will and pleasure is that soldiers discharged under the circumstances aforesaid, or on reduction of establishment—being Europeans and serving as gunners, drivers, sappers or privates—who, at the discretion of our Secretary of State, with the concurrence of our Commander in Chief, may be brought forward for discharge under the circumstances aforesaid, shall receive permanent pensions as follows, in addition to good conduct pay under the regulations laid down in our Royal Warrant of 23rd July, 1864:—

A.—Cavalry Soldiers serving under the Army Service Act, 1847, or enlisted previously.

After 23 years' service	... 7½d. a-day.	After 21 years' service	... 6½d. a-day.
After 22 years' service	... 7d. „	After 20 years' service	... 6d. „

B.—Cavalry Soldiers re-engaged for twenty-one years under the Army Enlistment Act, 1867; and all Soldiers of the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers and Infantry Corps.

After 21 years' service	... 8d. a-day.	After 19 years' service	... 7d. a-day.
After 20 years' service	... 7½d. „	After 18 years' service	... 6½d. „

Non-commissioned officers, and other soldiers ranking as such, shall receive, in addition to the foregoing rates, the increased pensions laid down for non-commissioned officers in Article 9 of our said Royal Warrant of 23rd July, 1864.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 1st day of May, 1869, in the thirty-second year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 61.—Royal Warrant.—Medals for Long Service and Good Conduct.VICTORIA R.

Whereas we deem it expedient that the conditions prescribed by Article 769 of our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, that no soldier who shall ever have been convicted by court-martial, shall be eligible for a gratuity and medal for long service and good conduct, shall be relaxed in certain cases of non-commissioned officers reduced to the ranks;

Our will and pleasure is, that a non-commissioned officer convicted by court-martial, and reduced to the ranks for any other offence than those specified in the 81st and 168th Article of War (1869), shall be relieved from the consequences of such conviction as affecting his claim to be recommended by our Commander in Chief for the gratuity and medal, after a probation of five years' continuous good conduct from date of reduction.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 1st day of May, 1869, in the thirty-second year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 62.—Royal Warrant.—Prizes for Good Shooting.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, 7th May, 1869.)

VICTORIA R.

Whereas we deem it expedient that the prizes for skill at arms, now issued under the authority of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866, shall in future be granted under regulations to be framed from time to time by our Secretary of State for War;

Our will and pleasure is, that Articles 801 to 809 of our said Royal Warrant be cancelled; and they are hereby cancelled accordingly.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 30th day of April, 1869, in the thirty-second year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Regulations.

1. Prizes for good shooting will in future be issued under regulations to be framed by the Secretary of State for War, her Majesty having been pleased to cancel the Articles of the Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, under which these rewards have heretofore been granted.

2. The following regulations therefore will govern the issue of prizes for good shooting until further orders.

3. The conditions under which soldiers shall be entitled to these prizes will be fixed by the Commander in Chief, and published from time to time in the regulations for conducting the musketry instruction of the Army.

4. The prizes will be as follows:—

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1ST PRIZE.—To the best shot of the Infantry of the Army (including the Royal Engineers and Colonial Corps) who have practised through the annual course of musketry drill and individual firing prescribed for the drilled soldier 2ND PRIZE.—To the best shot of every regiment or battalion, or depôt battalion of Infantry, consisting of not less than four companies, all of which must have practised through the annual course of musketry drill and individual firing as above laid down 3RD PRIZE.—To the best shot of every company in which 40 men at least have practised through the annual course of musketry drill and individual firing as above laid down 4TH PRIZE.—To "marksmen," to the number of 10 per cent. of the men practised through the annual course of musketry drill and individual firing as above laid down, in each regiment, battalion, or depôt battalion, in addition to the holders of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes | 20l. and a bronze medal (inscribed with the year in which won, and the winner's name, number and regiment) to be worn on the right breast. 5l. and a badge of cross muskets and crown, worked in gold, to be worn on the left arm. 3l. and a badge of cross muskets worked in gold, to be worn on the left arm. 1l. 10s. and a badge of cross muskets, worked in worsted, to be worn on the left arm. |
|---|--|

5. No two of the above prizes will be held by the same soldier. The second in order of merit in each case succeed to the prize vacated by the winner of a higher prize.

6. All prize-holders must have qualified as marksmen.

7. In addition to the above prizes, an honorary distinction of a badge of cross muskets and crown, worked in gold, will be worn on the right arm by the serjeants of the best shooting company (in which forty men at least have practised as above laid down), in every battalion of infantry or depôt battalion, and in the Royal Engineers, consisting of not less than four companies, all of which shall have passed through the annual course of practice, and shall have established a good average "figure of merit," and those men who qualify as marksmen in the annual course, but who may be in excess of the percentage to whom prizes are allowed, will be permitted to wear the distinctive badge of "marksmen."

8. The prizes will be issued as soon as the necessary authority shall be received at the corps, and the badges will be worn for one year, commencing from the first day of the month succeeding the receipt of such authority. When the musketry drill and practice are suspended, the badges may continue to be worn until the next award of prizes, after another annual course.

9. The medal given with the first prize will be the property of the winner, and may be worn during the whole of his service.

10. Soldiers who, by reason of imprisonment or their own misconduct, are prevented from going through the course with their companies, and are consequently practised as "casuals," will not be eligible to receive any rewards for good shooting; and any soldier who, between the date of his annual training, and that of the receipt of the authority for the issue of the prizes, shall desert, or be convicted of felony, or of disgraceful conduct, or be discharged from the service with ignominy, will thereby forfeit any prize that may have been awarded to him, and such prize will not be issued to any other soldier.

11. In calculating the number of men entitled to the 4th prize as "marksmen," additional prizes will be given for fractions of six and upwards.

12. Prizes of the value of 1*l*. 5*s*. each (with a badge of cross carbines worked in worsted, to be worn on the left arm) will be granted to all regiments of cavalry, at the rate (but not exceeding two per squadron exercised) of one for every ten soldiers who shall compete for them in accordance with conditions to be laid down and published by the Commander-in-Chief; and if there be 100 such competitors an additional sum of 1*l*. will be granted to the soldier who, having obtained one of the above prizes, shall make the highest aggregate score in the first period of the annual course and the competitive practice together.

13. A prize of 3*l*. (with a badge of crossed muskets and crown, worked in gold, to be worn on the left arm), and prizes of 1*l*. 10*s*. each (with a badge of crossed muskets, worked in gold, to be worn on the left arm), will be granted to the Cape Mounted Riflemen, the former prize to the best shot of the regiment, and the latter to the best shot of each company which has practised according to regulation, under the same conditions as stated above for the 2nd and 3rd prizes. A further prize of 1*l*. 10*s*. (with a badge of cross muskets, worked in worsted, to be worn on the left arm) will also be issuable to the best shot with the revolver pistol in each company of that regiment, as also the honorary distinction for the serjeants of the best shooting company referred to in paragraph 7.

Cl. 63.—Indian Pensions.

1. In order to extend as much as possible the facilities of exchange to officers of the new line regiments, the Secretary of State for War, in concurrence with the Secretary of State for India in Council, has decided that the privilege of retaining their claim to Indian pension shall be granted to all officers who, having been appointed to one of the new line regiments from the Indian Army, may have since joined, or may hereafter join by exchange, any other regiment of her Majesty's British service, whether purchase or non-purchase, or either of the Indian Staff corps.

2. Such officers will accordingly, on retirement from a purchase regiment, be entitled either to sell their commissions under the usual regulations of the service, or to avail themselves of the Indian Pension rules.

3. If, however, such officers shall retire from the service from a non-purchase regiment of the line before they have acquired a claim to pension under the Indian rules, they will be entitled to receive the value of their commissions under the conditions laid down in Horse Guards General Order No. 48, of 1868.

Cl. 64.—Stamp Duty on Commissions of Instructors of Musketry.

Amounts required for stamp duty on the commissions of instructors of musketry will in future be credited by the paymaster who issues the extra-duty pay.

Cl. 65.—Newspapers for Military and Civil Departments, Abroad.

1. Charges for newspapers will not in future be admitted in the public accounts, except as provided in the following paragraphs.

2. One copy of a local paper will be allowed for the controller at the head-quarter station of a command, it being necessary to afford him information in regard to prices current, which copy must be regularly filed in his office.

3. Newspapers to accompany schedules of tenders will be purchased when necessary and charged in the Office Contingent Account.

Cl. 66.—Return of Lodging Money.

1. The following alterations in the certificates at the foot of the return (W. O. Form 945) will be made wherever the Control system may be established.

2. The certificate for "Regimental Officers," and also that for "Staff Officers," will be signed by the Controller.

3. The third certificate will be worded as follows:—"I certify that each of the officers specified in the above return was present in this garrison during the period stated against his name,"—and will be signed by an officer of the Adjutant General's Department.

4. The order for payment on the third page will be signed by the Controller and addressed to the Control Paymaster instead of to the Military Accountant.

Cl. 67.—Medical Pay Lists, Ration Returns, &c.

The pay lists and ration returns of the medical staff which have been heretofore prepared by the Purveyors' Department under Articles 148 and 253 of the purveyors' regulations will in future be made out in the office of the principal medical officer.

Cl. 68.—Rates under Landport Improvement Act.

Paragraph 2 of clause 124, Army Circulars 1868, is hereby cancelled.

CONTROL DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 69.—Hours of Attendance at Control Offices.

1. Inconvenience having arisen from the same fixed hours of attendance having been established at all stations and in all climates, Controllers will, with the concurrence of general officers commanding, determine the hours during which the offices and stores of the departments under their direction shall be open for the transaction of business, and will cause the same to be published for the information of the garrison and of the public.

2. It is to be understood that the services of officers are available at all hours, should they be required, independently of the hours during which the offices and stores may be open.

3. War Office Circulars 19 and 229 are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 70.—Correspondence.

The formal acknowledgment of the receipt of the letters sent from this office hitherto customary in the Commissariat Department will be discontinued for the future.

Cl. 71.—Extra Time.

Controllers and officers in charge are informed that foremen and master artificers are not to be paid for "extra hours," except in cases of great emergency when delay would be injurious to the public interest; and that artificers and labourers are not to be employed "extra hours" more than is actually and necessarily required to complete the service on which they may be employed.

ROYAL ENGINEER DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 72.—Contracts for Works, Home Stations.

1. In future cases of contracts for works estimated at £5,000 and upwards, a revised form (W. O. Form 1520) of "Notice to Candidates," will be substituted for that which accompanied W. O. Circular No. 526. Copies of the revised form have been forwarded to each Royal Engineer station.

2. The candidate's surveyor will be entitled to one-half the charges allowed for two surveyors by W. O. Circular No. 571.

STORES.

Cl. 73.—Inventories of Packages.

When stores are issued or delivered into store in packages by military store officers or other store accountants, either departmental or regimental, an inventory of the articles will be placed in each package, which will be signed by the packer, and also by the person who witnessed the packing, if practicable.

Cl. 74.—Stores issued to Gunners of Her Majesty's Ships.

1. Several instances having occurred in the examination of gunners' accounts of her Majesty's ships of a deficiency of stores being explained by the note "returned into store, but no receipt given or taken," acting controllers and commissaries in charge of stores are directed to give the gunner of a ship a receipt for every article of store that he may leave in their charge, whether the gunner requires one or not; and should the gunner refuse to take a receipt, they will forward one to the officer commanding the ship, with an explanatory note, stating that the articles vouched for have been received, but that no receipt was required by the gunner.

2. Acting controllers and commissaries in charge of stores will direct all store officers, foremen, and others under them, to receive over all public stores, which are War Office property, from gunners of her Majesty's ships, whether surplus on the gunners' accounts or otherwise, and to hand over every such article to the officer in charge of stores, who will duly give a receipt for it, and bring it to account in his store ledger.

3. The strictest attention is to be paid to the order, as per margin, of 11th June, 1847, directing that store accountants shall post into their ledgers, without loss of time, every article delivered to them, so that neither at periodical surveys, nor at any remain or stock-taking, shall articles be found which have not been duly brought on charge.

Cl. 75.—Dell's Cases.

1. All descriptions of Dell's cases at stations at home and abroad will be sent to Woolwich as soon as practicable, and, if possible, free of expense for freight. When the cases cannot be sent home free they should be flattened to lessen the cost of conveyance.

2. In the event of any Dell's cases being in use for the stowage of artillery ammunition, or required specially for use in damp magazines for preserving the ammunition for the defences, they may be retained, unless the ammunition can be transferred to metal-lined cases; then those of Dell's pattern should also be returned to Woolwich.

CLOTHING.

Cl. 76.—Compensation to Royal Artillery.

The Royal Artillery will in future receive the compensation sanctioned by Article 9 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, for difference of value between dress and undress clothing, at the end of the year, instead of quarterly as heretofore.

HOSPITAL ACCOMMODATION, HOME SERVICE.

Cl. 77.

In consideration of the improved sanitary condition of the army, the Secretary of State has decided that in the future building or re-appropriation of hospitals, as well as in the arrangement of equipment for hospital service, the hospital accommodation for troops on home service shall be calculated at the reduced rate of six per cent. on the barrack accommodation.

HOSPITALS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Cl. 78.

1. The wives and families of non-commissioned officers and men married with leave, and on the married roll of a regiment, and entitled to quarters, will alone possess a claim to admission to, and treatment in, women's hospitals at the public expense, under the following conditions.

Infectious Disease.

2. Cases of scarlet fever and variola, when occurring in barracks or huts, will always be admitted, with the view of preventing, or limiting, the spread of such diseases. All other infectious maladies will, as a rule, be treated in quarters, and will only be admitted on the order of the principal medical officer, under circumstances which in his opinion justify a departure from the general rule. Sufferers from infectious diseases will never be treated in hospital under the same roof with lying-in women.

General Disease.

3. Only cases of serious and acute disease are admissible, when in the opinion of the principal medical officer the nature of the cases, or the circumstances, are such as to justify their treatment in hospital, at the public expense. Cases of chronic disease are not admissible without the sanction of the director-general.

Parturient Cases.

4. The wives of non-commissioned officers and men, when occupying wooden huts, will be entitled to admission for their confinements. When in quarters or in barracks they will also be entitled to admission except—

- (a) When occupying two rooms;
- (b) When occupying one room and without children.

General Regulations.

5. The wives and children of soldiers coming to hospital for admission will be required to bring a certificate, signed by the officer commanding, that the applicant is the wife or child of a soldier married with leave, and on the strength of a regiment, and entitled to quarters in barracks. These certificates will be filed for reference.

6. Others than the wives and children of soldiers on the married roll of corps are only admissible (paying the regulated stoppage), under exceptional circumstances, or when their removal from the public quarters occupied by them may be deemed necessary, as a matter of safety and protection in guarding the troops and their families against the spread of contagious disease.

7. The wives and families of soldiers married without leave, or not entitled to quarters, are not admissible under any circumstances to be treated at the public expense.

8. The principal medical officer will, in future, at the end of every month forward to the Director General of the Army Medical Department a return (on W. O. Form 1020)* of the patients treated in the women's hospital, in the form herewith, affording at the same time, in the column of remarks, any explanation that may be necessary, especially as regards the admission of cases of general disease. This return is in lieu of that hitherto furnished monthly (on W. O. Form 26) to the Quarter Master General, in accordance with paragraph 1484 of the Queen's Regulations.

9. The number of beds allowed by Treasury grant must never be exceeded, unless with the authority of the Secretary of State for War.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE WORKING OF MACHINERY.Cl. 79.

Instructions to be observed in the working and management of steam boilers, steam engines, cranes and other machinery throughout the War Department are issued with the present Army Circular to officers and others concerned.

* See Appendix.

G. O. 60.—Discipline.

(Specially issued 14th May, 1869.)

The attention of general and commanding officers is called to the 167th Article of War, which empowers courts of enquiry, assembled to record the absence without leave of soldiers, to take evidence upon oath respecting the deficiency of any articles of the absentee's kit, as well as to the fact of the man's absence.

The declaration of such courts is to be entered in the regimental court martial book, and that record, or a copy thereof, purporting to bear the signature of the officer having the custody of the regimental books, shall be admissible in evidence of the facts on the trial of the soldier.

But it is to be clearly understood, that the proceedings of the court of enquiry are not to be produced in evidence, or attached to the proceedings of courts martial.

With reference to the concluding paragraph of the 78th Article of War, courts martial in recording former instances of drunkenness, will enter in their proceedings the number of such instances as proved by reference to the regimental defaulter's books. The evidence on this head is to be given by the officer whose duty it is to prove former convictions, and in the following terms:—

"On reference to the regimental defaulters' book now laid before the court, it appears that the prisoner's name has been recorded therein for the crime of drunkenness — times since his enlistment."

G.O. 61.—Establishments.

II. Highland regiments have a pipe major and five pipers in addition, who are to be borne on the strength of the service companies.

III. The regiments in China and Ceylon have an additional assistant surgeon.

G.O. 62.—Discipline.

(Specially issued 21st May, 1869.)

With reference to par. 747 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, the attention of general and commanding officers is particularly called to the 78th Article of

War, which prohibits the trial of private soldiers by regimental court martial, for drunkenness not on duty. If therefore a soldier commits that offence, in combination with some other crime for which it is intended to bring him to trial before a regimental court martial, the act of drunkenness is not to be added to the charge on which he is to be arraigned; but, as it is necessary that the drunkenness should be recorded, in order to compute the fines which may have to be subsequently levied, commanding officers should award punishment for that offence before the prisoner is brought to trial on the other charge.

G.O. 63.—Regimental Messes.

Civilian messmen of regiments, being independent contractors, and if supplying exciseable articles being required to take out a licence, to which strong objections exist, officers of regiments will, in future, supply themselves with all exciseable articles which may be required for their use, in the same manner as they do with wine.

This G. O. is to be substituted for the one specially issued on 21st May, which should be destroyed.

G.O. 64.—Embarkations. (Quartermaster General.)

On board ship, when troops of more than one corps are embarked, captains having the brevet rank of field officer will be allotted cabins in priority to captains not having such brevet rank, whether the officers belong to the same regiment or not.

G.O. 65.—Officers' Dress.

In order to assimilate the chacos of officers to those recently issued to the men of certain infantry regiments, a pattern has been sealed and is deposited at the Horse Guards, for general information and guidance.

Officers joining regiments wearing the old pattern chacos, should not have the lace or chain added, until the new chacos are supplied to the men.

G.O. 66.—Hospital Orderlies.

Medical officers in charge of military hospitals are authorized to employ, without pay, when desirable, on light hospital duties, such convalescents or men suffering from the slighter venereal ailments, as they may deem competent to aid the permanent hospital establishment.

G.O. 67.—Medals.

Commanding officers will, in future, forward a copy of the permanent defaulter sheet of each soldier recommended for a medal for long service and good conduct, whether with, or without, gratuity.

G.O. 68.—Recruiting.

The minimum height for all infantry recruits, whether enlisted at head quarters or otherwise, is reduced from 5 feet 8 inches to 5 feet 7 inches, until further orders.

G.O. 69.—Recruiting.

Men who appear by their parchment certificates to have been discharged in consequence of medical disability, and are desirous of rejoining the army, are not to be re-enlisted without their cases being first submitted to the adjutant general, for special authority.

G.O. 70.—Staff Clerks.

General officers commanding districts and divisions at home, are requested, before appointing a soldier to a military staff clerkship, to ascertain, in the first instance, whether there is any non-commissioned officer registered in the adjutant general's department available to fill the vacancy.

The cases of military staff clerks invalidated from foreign stations, and whom it is not desirable to send abroad again, will be registered, as also the names of non-commissioned officers specially recommended.

This G. O. does not refer to Royal Artillery and Royal Engineer offices.

Erratum.

Omit 1862 from the list of years stated in G. O. 17 of 1869, for service, in New Zealand, during which, a medal will be granted;—as no military operations were carried on during that year.
